How to be informed and contact us

- Be part of the mailing list “doctorants” of IJCLab
=> if it's not the case, and haven't receive anything yet, send us an email at student-bureau@ijclab.in2p3.fr
- Join the WhatsApp group of IJCLab Students
- Participate to the events organized, by registration on dedicated indico pages
We try to make as much advertisement as we can among the different groups!

You should join us !

Lots of us are getting old... and will leave the lab soon!

=> If you are in your 1st or 2nd year and have ideas for an event, feel free to tell us and we'll help you do it.

We have a budget line from the lab, resources to contact people.

You do not need to invest lots of time and energy : can be a one time involvement for one event

We always need arms to go grocery shopping, to help out with the students room, to order food from a restaurant, to make the indico pages and advertise the events...

We need new people involved!

Thank you !
