- From Oct 1, 2024, he will be full-time employed by NWO-I in the Netherlands
- For a short moment, until Dec 31, 2024, he will continue as part-time professor at the VUB in Belgium
- J. D'Hondt proposes to the iSAS Governing Board to consider Nikhef as a new associate partner to iSAS in order to continue his involvement as Scientific Coordinator of iSAS
- A functioning budget of 20k EUR (total over 4 years) was allocated to the Scientific Coordinator at the VUB, and it can be expected that J. D'Hondt can continue using this budget
