My presentation during BVM 2021 has been recorded. I hereby consent to its use in the following way:

Yes No

provide it on the BVM Youtube channel without access restriction.

I understand that I have no claim to the availability of the material over a specific period of time. The OTH Regensburg or other BVM responsible person may delete the recording or block access to it whenever this seems suitable.

As speaker in the above mentioned event I am responsible for the materials used in my talk and, therefore, also for video by recording of the talk. I especially affirm that I have the copyrights to all used media, e.g. texts, images, movies etc., which are used in the talk. Wherever this is not the case, the material of third parties is being used within the restrictions of citation laws and with reference to the appropriate sources. These media can therefore be used gratuitously over the above agreed channels of distribution. The recording and publication of the event carried out by myself does not infringe upon anybody else's rights.

This agreement can be revoked in writing at any time and without showing cause by contacting the above mentioned entity.
