

Contribution ID: 28

Type: not specified

Dark energy and string theory

Tuesday, January 17, 2023 5:40 PM (20 minutes)

“The question of dark energy has been revived in the recent years in string phenomenology, in part due to so-called swampland conjectures. Getting well-controlled string effective theories with de Sitter spacetimes is very challenging, asking the question of alternatives to reproduce observed cosmology (quintessence, multifield inflation, or else).

Presenter: ANDRIOT, David (LAPTh, CNRS)